We bring you an office that's ready to welcome new ideas, teams, and projects!

This 207 m² office stands out for its adaptability and character. Located in a mixed-use building from 1985, it combines the solidity of a well-established property with a space that easily adapts to any work style you have in mind.

The access is at street level, with an entrance and reception area on the ground floor of about 17 m², perfect for receiving visitors. From the entrance, a staircase leads up to a mezzanine of 190 m², currently divided into six independent spaces, although you'll have the possibility of leaving it completely open if you want to create a collaborative environment.

It features a toilet, a full bathroom, a kitchenette, ideal for coffee breaks between meetings, and a large storage room that adds functionality to the office. Each space is equipped with hot/cold air conditioning.

In addition, community fees and property tax (IBI) are covered by the owner, a detail that makes a difference.
