There are places that make you feel like everything fits, even if you can't quite explain why.

I have to confess, the moment I crossed the door of this apartment, it felt like it was saying: "welcome home."

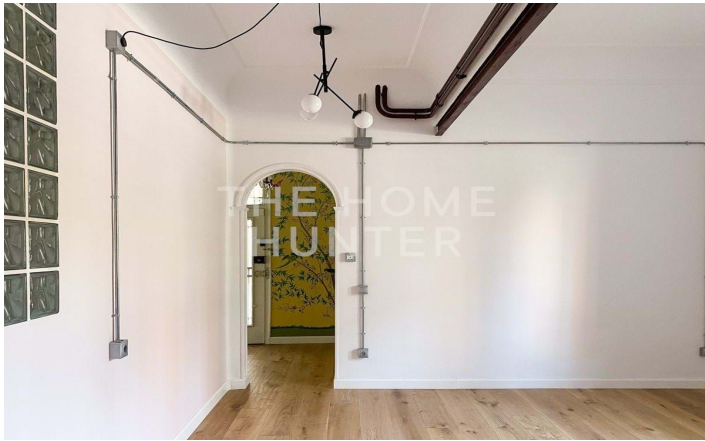

With its well-used 68 m², this ground floor apartment has that perfect balance between functionality and charm. An entrance hall that welcomes you, a living-dining room, and an independent, fully equipped kitchen with personality.

Two double bedrooms (one en suite with a walk-in closet) and two full bathrooms. The building, dating back to 1956, keeps that classic touch we love so much, but with all the comforts of today: gas heating, well-kept spaces, and plenty of light.

Ideal for those looking for a home with character — practical and ready to move into.

You'll love it!
