I love seeing fun color combinations on floors. It's like a little piece of freedom—doing things just because, simply because you feel like it. And doing things your own way is exactly what this short-term rental allows, which, for a season, has a whole lot of charm.

This short-term rental offers 55 m<sup>2</sup> of total built space and is located on the principal floor. It features a living-dining room, an open, fully equipped kitchen, one double bedroom, one full bathroom, and built-in wardrobes.
