La Dreta de l'Eixample / Barcelona

€1,250,000

Many of you asked about this apartment when it appeared in our stories—and it's no surprise, because it's truly beautiful. Fully renovated, filled with natural light thanks to its exterior balconies, and finished with exquisite details. The herringbone parquet floors paired with the original hydraulic tiles are simply stunning. Every detail has been thoughtfully designed to create a home you'll want to live in.

This 113 m² apartment is located on the first floor (second floor in reality) and has just been fully renovated. It's exterior-facing and features three double bedrooms (one with a walk-in closet), two full bathrooms (one en suite), built-in wardrobes, a spacious living-dining room with access to three balconies, and an open, fully equipped kitchen. It includes double-glazed windows, ducted air conditioning, and individual gas heating via radiators. The flooring is a mix of natural wood herringbone parquet and original hydraulic tiles, with high ceilings featuring exposed beams and Catalan vaulted ceilings. The building is a stately property from 1910 and has an elevator.
