

Virgen del Portillo / Ciudad Lineal

Madrid / Madrid Ciudad

€448,000

A new project, a thousand ideas thrown around, trials and errors, complications, and so much satisfaction. These are all feelings you go through during a renovation project, but the pride of seeing it finished... that's something I wouldn't trade for anything. Here is an ideal first step, with space and plenty of advantages, like that large balcony or the communal rooftop terrace.

This apartment is in need of renovation. It has 94m² of built space and is located on the fourth floor. It features an independent kitchen, two double bedrooms, one single bedroom, one full bathroom, a storage room, and built-in wardrobes. The apartment has individual gas heating and air conditioning, as well as a large balcony, open views, and a communal rooftop terrace. The building, dating from 1955, has an elevator.
