

Basílica / Castellana

Castellana / Madrid

€1,590,000

You can really tell that this apartment was designed with every detail in mind. Everything, absolutely everything, is so beautiful—the colors, the balcony with its dining area and chill-out space, the harmony in every room, the light. I love these apartments that feel like a whole, where every element fits perfectly to become the best possible version of itself.

This 186m² apartment features an interior design by Jos Martínez from 2022. It includes a spacious living-dining room with access to a large balcony, a semi-open and fully equipped kitchen, four bedrooms (three doubles and one with a walk-in closet), three full bathrooms (one en suite), a guest toilet, and built-in wardrobes. It has double-glazed Climalit windows, hot/cold air conditioning, and individualized central heating. The property also includes a storage room and parking. The building, dating back to 1965, has a concierge, an elevator, and a service lift.

You'll love it!
