

TORRECILLA DEL LEAL / EMBAJADORES

Embajadores / Madrid

€220,000

I love how a small space can feel so big, making every meter count.

Every corner has its purpose, and the exposed beams give this studio a lot of personality.

This beautiful brand-new 23 m² studio, located on the fifth interior floor of a modern building (2023) with an elevator, combines style and functionality in every detail.

The open space integrates an open-plan kitchen and living area. It features a full bathroom, built-in wardrobes, and air conditioning with a heating/cooling pump, as well as exposed beams that add character and warmth to the atmosphere.

It's a compact, modern space designed to make the most of every square meter.
