€3,300,000

What a stunning house. Imagine waking up and seeing the sea, stepping out onto the balcony and hearing the waves, enjoying the sunrise from the pool or watching the full moon so close... The privilege of having so much peace in your home, that fairytale setting, that dream house we've all imagined at some point.

This 447 m² home (total built area) sits on a 1,825 m² plot and is spread over three floors. On the ground floor (159 m²), you'll find a closed garage with space for four cars, a double service bedroom, a full bathroom, a laundry room, and utility area. The main floor (161 m²) features a spacious, fully equipped professional kitchen with an office area, a large living-dining room with sea views and direct access to the garden, a master suite with walk-in closet and sea views, and a guest restroom. The first floor (127 m²) includes three sea-view suites with bathroom, two additional double bedrooms and a full bathroom. The property also offers a private swimming pool with panoramic sea views, a fireplace, gas heating, hot/cold air conditioning, built-in wardrobes, double-glazed Climalit windows, and an elevator serving all floors. The house was built in 2006.
