

Carrer de la Torre / Pals

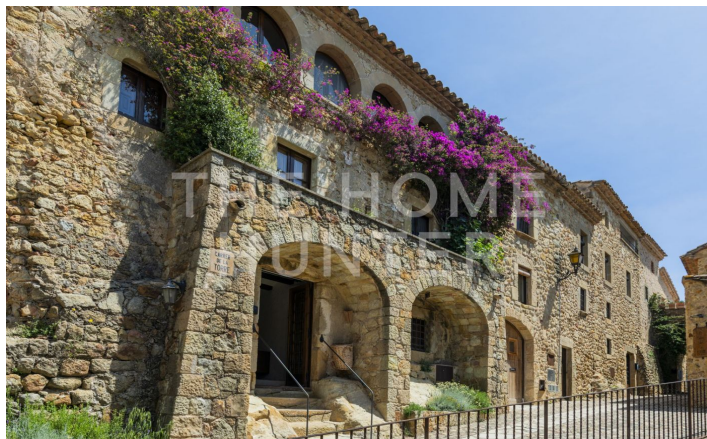

Pals

€545,000

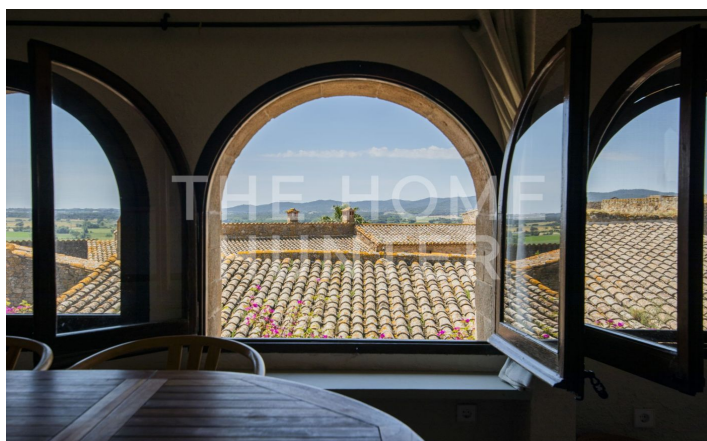

This house in the historic center of Pals is truly jaw-dropping. With 223?m² spread over three floors, it sits in the heart of this charming, character-filled town. Built entirely of stone, it radiates a warm, rustic, and homely vibe. And to top it off—it comes with a tourist license. An incredible investment opportunity to create something truly special.

This 223?m² house, distributed over three floors, is located right in the historic center of Pals and has a valid tourist license. On the ground floor, there is a spacious entrance hall, a storage room, and a laundry area with a bathroom. The first floor features three en-suite bedrooms (each with its own bathroom, and two with access to a balcony), built-in wardrobes, and panoramic views. The second floor offers a large open-plan living-dining area with kitchen. Additional features include a storage room, built-in wardrobes, double-glazed Climalit windows, and hot/cold air conditioning. The property was built in 1968.
