Puigpunyent

€799,000

I love it when houses have that characteristic rural charm — with stone walls, sloping ceilings, wooden wardrobes, and large windows. They feel like homes that embrace you the moment you walk in, giving a sense of safety and warmth.

The estate, built in 1983, has a total of 200 m², of which 177 m² correspond to the house, 40 m² to the terrace, and 19 m² to the pool. The property features two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and two full bathrooms. It offers a spacious living-dining room with direct access to the terrace, an independent kitchen, a laundry room, and a swimming pool ideal for enjoying the outdoors.
